

Martti ENÄJÄRVI

a national of Finland, is the President of the National Board of Patents and Registration of Finland. He received his University degree (LLM) in 1969, and was trained on the bench as Senior Lawyer in 1972. His former professional occupations included e.g. Expert Lecturer and Professor of Helsinki University of Technology (1971-1975) and Director in the Finnish industry.

He was Chair of WIPO General Assembly 1989-1991. He has been Chair of Finnish Delegations related to IPR since 1986 at Diplomatic Conferences as well as WIPO. He has also been President and Vice-President of several IPR-organisations (e.g. Strasbourg Union, Budapest Union, Locarno Union). He has been a Member of the Administrative Council of the EPO since 1996. He is the Chair of the Administrative Board, Advisory Committee and Pre-Selection Committee of the OHIM (EU Office in Alicante). He is also chair and member of a number of professional organizations and public services in Finland, e.g. Chair of the Advisory Board for the Associations and Chair of the Advisory Board for Enterprise Issues. He is also President of the Federation of Paasikivi Societies in Finland (foreign politics).

Mr Enäjärvi has written articles and given lectures on various subjects such as industrial property law, company law, environmental law, international law and management skills in Finland and in the Forums of WIPO on several continents since 1998.

Christine GODT

lecturer in law at the Centre for European Law and Politics at the University of Bremen, was born in 1964 and studied law and history in Tübingen, Berlin, Paris and Washington D.C. In 1991 and 1997 she passed her state law examinations in Berlin. From 1992 to 1995 she acquired a doctorate in the DFG (German Research Foundation) postgraduate programme 'Private Law System and Risk Regulation' of Bremen University. Since 1997: Bremen University. 2005: Doctorate in "Eigentum an Information" (Information Property). Teaching: Intellectual property, national and comparative civil law, economic law (WTO, EU). Research: "Welthandel und Sozialregulierung: WTO und EU im Vergleich" (Global Trade and Social Regulation: a Comparison between the WTO and the EU) ("Transformations of the State" Collaborative Research Center with J. Falke and C. Joerges); "Boundaries to Information Property" (Trento Project on the Common Core of European Private Law); "Access to Genetic Resources and Benefit-Sharing – Kenya, Brazil and Germany as examples” (DFG Project with G. Winter, C. Kamau, J. Kleba).

Heinz HAMMANN

is Director of the Corporate Division Patents at Boehringer Ingelheim GmbH in Ingelheim, Germany. Prior to this function he held positions with Syngenta and its predecessor Novartis and Ciba Geigy in the field of agrochemical IP functions.

Dr Heinz Hammann has been a European Patent Attorney since 1988. He is a member of various industry organisation IP committees, inter alia, the VFA, EFPIA, IFPMA and INTERPAT. He has lectured on IP issues at the Zurich ETH.

Massimo MARONATI

January 2000	E-level Communication S.r.l. , Aviation Computer Based Training, Chief Executive Officer, Business Management and strategy
September 2003	Krill S.r.l., Information technologies for legal document management and archiving, Senior Partner, Business strategy and business development
November 2000 – July 2003	Context Systems S.p.A. Information Technologies security and Public Key Infrastructures, Chief Executive Officer, Business strategy and Management
January 1996 – November 2000	C.S.G. S.c.r.l. Software house, Chief Executive Officer, Sales and operation Management
June 1984 – December 1995	Mast Informatica S.r.l., Software House, Sales and business development, Commercial and operation Management

June 1981 – December 1983	Free lance (Self employed), Software Consultant, Software developer, Software analysis and software development
1971 – 1976	Technical High School (Industrial Electronics') ,I.T.I.S. OMAR – Novara – Italy, Electronics Engineering, High School degree
1995	Business School SDA - Università Bocconi – Milan, Service Company Management, Master

E-level Comunication (www.e-levelcom.com) is an Italian Company of e-Learning solutions since 1996. Specialized in E-learning environment production for Aeronautical, Defense, Transportation and Automotive fields.

Wolfgang TAUCHERT

Born in 1944; studied physics at the Technische Universität in Munich and acquired a PhD at the Freie Universität in Berlin. After working in industry, became an examiner at the German Patent Office in Munich in 1980. In 1990, appointed judge at the Federal Patent Court. From 1995 to 2003, Head of Department 1.53 (data processing, information storage) at the German Patent and Trade Mark Office. Since November 2003, presiding judge at the Federal Patent Court in Munich.

Repeated international activities as an expert on patents on behalf of the WIPO and GTZ. Has undertaken detailed examination of the issue of patenting computer-implemented inventions, both in publications and at international conferences.

Michel VIVANT

Doctor honoris causa of the University of Heidelberg, Michel Vivant is Professor at the Institute of Political Sciences of Paris (“Sciences Po”). He is the author of numerous publications in the field of IP in fifteen countries. Consultant to lawyers and companies (with regard to: patents, trademarks, copyright, new technologies, Internet, electronic commerce...), consultant Professor in the firm Gilles Vercken in Paris, he is also expert consultant to the French authorities (Prime Minister, Ministry of Justice, Ministry of Research...) and to international authorities, in particular to the European Commission and the European Council, and Member of the French "High Council of Industrial Property". He has a practice of internal arbitration (particularly in contract law) and international arbitration (ICC and UNCITRAL matters in IT law) and is WIPO "Arbitrator" for domain names.